

Beautiful Bali Retreat

Optional Tour: Hiking Trip of Mt. Agung
Date: Wednesday, 13th July 2016
Cost: $120.00

Not for the faint-hearted, the Mt. Agung sunrise trek gets started in the early hours of the morning (2 am to be exact), with a one hour drive to the Pasar Agung Temple starting point.

From there, it's a three to four hour hike, ascending approximately 2000m, before arriving about 100m below the summit of Mt. Agung where you will find incredible views in all directions as well as into the volcano's crater, eating a well-deserved breakfast as the sun rises.

The hike back down will take approximately three hours and you will be driven back to Kori Ubud in your air-conditioned car, to arrive prior to lunch

For those adventurous among us, the hiking trip is not to be missed!

Please note this tour is for those with a high level of fitness, if you can't climb a flight of stairs with breaking into sweat and gasping for air, then this tour is not for you.
